

SAFE AND UNSAFE WOOD FOR PARROTS

The following trees are NON-TOXIC and considered SAFE to use for your bird's perches and toys. Don't use branches that have been treated or sprayed with chemicals or pesticides. Branches from trees growing near the street or roads should not be used as they may be contaminated with salt or exhaust fumes from cars.

SAFE - NON-TOXIC

Ash	Almond	Apple	Aspen
Bamboo	Beech	Birch	Citrus
Cottonwood	Crabapple	Dogwood	Elm
Dragonwood	Elm	Fir	Gingko
Grapevine	Hackberry	Hawthorn	Larch
Hazelnut	Hibiscus	Honeysuckle	Lilac
Magnolia	Manzanita	Maple (not red,)	Pine
Oak - wood only	Palm	Pear	Poplar
Rose	Sassafras	Spruce,	Sweet Gum
Sycamore	Willow

The following trees are considered TOXIC and should NEVER be offered to your bird:

Apricot	Black locust	Box Elder	Boxwood
Buckeye	Cherry	Crape Myrtle	Hemlock
Oak - leaves, bark and acorns		Peach	Plum
Pine (needles and berries)		Red Maple	Redwood
Sumac			